

Good Morning! I am _____, and these are your Morning Announcements for Tuesday, November 14, 2017

Now in School Business:

Attention seniors: If you would like help with college admission essays or completing your college applications, come to after school tutoring on Mon., Tues., Wed. or Thurs. in the library.

Any students interested in doing College Credit Plus next year should plan to attend a meeting tonight at 7pm in the DHS Auditorium.

Dover High School will be giving the ASVAB Test on Wed., Dec. 6th for all juniors and seniors interested in taking the test for military service. There is a sign-up sheet in Google drive that Mr. Bender has shared with the classes of 2018 and 2019.

All of this week the National Honor Society is doing a fundraiser for the Tuscarawas County Humane Society. There will be boxes for each class in the main lobby, and the class who brings in the most donations will win a donut breakfast provided by Dough&Co. Things that are most needed are bleach, cat litter and Christmas toys for the upcoming holiday season.

The Discover Student Loans Scholarship is now available in the office, and the deadline is Dec. 31, 2017.

Now in Clubs & Activities:

Art Club candy bar money is now past due. All money and unsold candy needs to be turned in to Mrs. Hanenkrat as soon as possible.

And in Sports:

Any students planning to participate on the track & field team this spring who are not involved in a DHS winter sport should plan to attend training sessions at the DHS weight room beginning this week. These sessions will be Tuesdays and Fridays from 2:45-4pm. A third day incorporating yoga will be added later. The first training day is today. If you have conflicts, please see Coach Smith in room 315 TODAY.

These have been your morning announcements for Tuesday, November 14, 2017. Have a great day!
